About the AWA Yudansha kai

The 2006 AWA Yudansha kai is unique for many reasons and worth the effort to attend. It will be the first black belt event for the AWA and the first time at the premier Kyushinkan dojo, with 200 tatami of mat space! If that is not enough, the event will focus on many new weapons forms being introduced to members, along with teaching tools for helping all attendees to go back better equipped to instruct Aikido at their dojo.

Lastly the Yudansha kai seminar is to bring together as many senior members of the AWA as possible to forge deeper bonds of friendship through this training, so that the AWA will grow not only in numbers but in unified strength of the common vision that O'Sensei wished for us all.

Teaching certification will be issued to those in full attendance. Certification is valid for 2 years of date. Certificate of attendance will be issued for partial attendance.

About the Instructor

Andrew M. Sato, Rokudan Aikikai, is a full time Aikido instructor. Sato Sensei trained under Fumio Toyoda Shihan beginning in 1977, until Toyoda Sensei's passing in 2001. First as member of the Ki Aikido Society, then with the Aikido Association of America and Aikido Association International. From 2002 until the end of 2004 Sato Sensei served as the chief instructor of both the AAA & AAI. In 2005 he organized the Aikido World Alliance for dojo cho and students to further improve their understanding and art of Aikido through standardized instruction and intensive training, while providing opportunities for personal exchange and community networking.
