Dojo Background & Bio

Jikishinkan dojo, founded by Joseph Jarman sensei in 1990 to promote the practice and study of Aikido and Buddhism, now operates under the guidance of dojo cho Stewart Johnson Sensei. Johnson Sensei, currently ranked sandan, began training in Aikido from Jarman Sensei. He was also fortunate enough to have attended many seminars by Toyoda Shihan. A Buddhist since 1975, Johnson Sensei took formal Buddhist vows in 1996 led by Reverend Gyoko Saito. Compassion, elimination of dualistic thinking and unification of mind and body are the central aspects of the teaching at Jikishinkan dojo.
